FOR PRESIDENT.
BENJAMIN HARRISON.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT.
LEVI P. MORTON.

It is understood in political circles that W. H. Mankor, deputy sheriff, will be the democratic candidate for county attorney and Leon E. Lum the republican.

COL. C. H. GRAVES, of Duluth, has received the republican nomination for the legislature in the 46th district. Mr. Graves is a strong man and will make a good representative.

BRO. STIVERS is hot in the collar because we published the facts concerning the joint debate and excitedly yells "you lie!" "It's false!" For pity sake, keep cool Bro. Stivers, we did not know that you would feel so badly, or we would not have said anything about your defeat.

CAPT. S. P. SNIDER was nominated on Thursday as the republican candidate for congress from the 4th district. Mr. Snider's opponent is Hon. Edmund Rice, the present congressman from that district, and probably the most popular candidate in the state, but nevertheless, we believe Mr. Snider will beat his opponent. He is an active, enterprising young business man who makes it a point to succeed in whatever he undertakes.

In another column we publish an arraignment of the mayor by the grand jury which we hardly think is merited. While Mayor Hempstead has hardly met the expectation of those who elected him to the position, his administration has been a great improvement over the preceding one, and he deserves some credit for the improvement. Therefore we consider the resolution in a great measure unjust and undeserved.

J. L. BERKHIMER, the editor of the Voice of the People, a labor paper published at St. Paul, has announced himself as a candidate for the legislature from the 8th and 9th wards in St. Paul. Mr. Berkhimer is the young man who tried to organize a workmen's political club here, but made a rank failure of it. We've got an idea he would be just about as successful as a legislator as he was in the capacity of a political organizer.

ON Thursday last week C. A. Pillsbury & Co., of Minneapolis, divided profits to the amount of $40,000 among their employees. This is the largest amount of money that was ever distributed by any firm in a single year. Each employee who had been with the firm for two years and had worked faithfully, received his proportion according to the value of his services to the company. The sum received by individuals varied from $25 to $2,500.

THE Wadena Tribune is constantly referring to the election of Judge Baxter, an appointee of the governor and a democrat, to the position to which he was appointed as Judge of the 7th district. This, as the Tribune says, was right and proper, as Judge Baxter made a fair and impartial Judge, and was called by the bar of his district, the men best qualified to judge of his fitness for the position, to be a candidate for election. So, in a like manner, Judge C. B. Sleeper was appointed by the governor, proved himself a fair and impartial official, has been almost unanimously called by the bar of his district to be a candidate for election, and we can see no valid reason why what the Tribune considers as good policy in Judge Baxter's case, should not be equally so in Judge Sleeper's case. In fact there is no reason except that Judge Baxter was a democrat and Judge Sleeper is a republican, and the Tribune knows that the only conclusion to be arrived at from this style of argument is that Judge Sleeper's election would be eminently right and proper.

Was His Class-Mate.
William R. Merriam, who has been nominated by the republicans for governor of Minnesota, is an old Wisconsin boy, having obtained his education at Racine college. C. E. Andrews, president of the Merchants' association, who was Merriam's classmate at Racine, said of him yesterday:

"The people of Minnesota will have a very smart man as governor. He was always very bright, and his successes of recent years have only been continuations of those of his college days. He entered Racine college at 15 and graduated at 21. Why, to show his success there, in his two years in the grammar school and six in college, the record of all his studies right through averaged 97 out of a possible 100. Merriam and I were classmates and room-mates and very intimate. He led in all his studies, was a leader in all athletic sports and took all the honors. He was a leader by nature, and he showed it in college as well as in later years. He was historic, valiant, and the favorite pupil of Dr. DeKoven. He was an indefatigable worker, with tremendous will power and very kind hearted."

After he left college he went into the First National bank of St. Paul as clerk, and worked right up. He was assistant cashier, cashier, vice-president and president of the Merchants' National bank when it was formed. I guess he is the youngest bank president on record, being only 38 years of age. He has been twice president of the Agricultural association, and president of the National Trotting association. He was speaker of the assembly last year. He has a great many friends in Milwaukee, having visited here quite often."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

A Southerner's Opinion of What Free Trade Would Do.

In a letter to the Charleston News and Courier Lieut.-Gen. Dick Taylor says:

"We made two great mistakes. Had we avoided them we should have conquered you. The first was, we did not substantially destroy the protective feature of the tariff in the winter session of 1857-58, by an act which provided a rapid sliding scale to free trade. We could have passed such a law and held it tight on you till it closed the furnace, workshops, woolen and cotton mills and steel and bar-iron works of the whole north and west, and scattered your workmen over your prairies and territories. When the war was ready for you, you would not have been ready for the war. You would not have armed and equipped and put in the field a large army nor built a large navy. You would have been without supplies, machinery and workmen, and you would have been without money and credit."

Notwithstanding the fact that the tariff for revenue only would, in the language of Gen. Taylor, "close the furnace, workshops, woolen and cotton mills," etc., the southern wing of the democracy is again seeking to destroy the protective system, and are coining northern democrats to adopt the same view and assist them. The president's free trade message and the Mills bill are the result of the free trade sentiment of the south that is seeking to destroy the industries of the north. But it won't work. The people of the north will, with the ballot in November, defeat the effort of the southern democracy in this direction as effectually as they did in the war, and every northern state will rally to the assistance of the republicans to accomplish this result.

Opposed to Protection.

The Democratic party is uncompromisingly in favor of protection. [BRAINERD JOURNAL.] The above is the rankest display of egotism and gall ever on record. We should like to know how long the Journal man has been the Democratic party, or by what right he places that party as in favor of protection, when the last party platform distinctly says that the tariff should be limited to the wants of the government, and the party platform in 1876 says "We are in favor of a tariff for revenue only," which is practically free trade as practiced in England and as everywhere understood to mean free trade. But let us see what position the small balance of the party outside of the Journal man takes upon this subject. The莽wump papers of New York, the Herald, the Times, the Evening Journal, Puck and Harper's Weekly, all admit that Cleveland as a civil service reformer is a failure, but support him because he has declared against the pernicious system of protection. At a Cleveland and Thurman meeting held in New York only a few days ago, when Henry George and Lloyd Garrison announced their intention of supporting Mr. Cleveland, the motto "Free Trade" was suspended over the platform, and the speakers said they supported Mr. Cleveland solely because he had adopted a policy that led to free trade. Again the most representative democrat in the country, (outside of the great Journal man we mean of course) Henry Waterson, boldly says that the democratic policy is for ultimate free trade. And who is Frank Hurd, the king of free traders in this country, supporting? Cleveland and Thurman of course; certainly not the candidates of a party that is "uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of protection," as the Republican platform boldly proclaims; and again, does not every English paper favor Mr. Cleveland's election because, as they truthfully say, Mr. Cleveland's policy is a first step to free trade. What, let us ask, has been the policy of the Democratic party in the past on this question? In 1840 Harrison was elected by the Whigs over a Democratic free trade opponent, the tariff being the issue. The southern Confederacy, which constitutes over one-half of the Democratic party, made free trade an article in its constitution, added to those that seceded constitutes three-fourths of the Democratic party—153 electoral votes—are equally in favor of free trade, and the ruin of the industries of the north. We might fill columns showing that the Democratic party is opposed to protection, but we have said sufficient to convince any fair-minded man who has any doubt on the subject, and will only add that Senator Coke, of Texas, said in the senate less than a week ago that the protective system was pernicious in its effects. This, then is how the Democratic party favors protection, and the Journal's effort to induce laboring men in this locality to vote for the Democratic candidates by falsely stating the position of the party, will be of no avail. And in conclusion, we will add, that we think it would be more becoming in the Journal man, considering that he has been a member of the Democratic party since the last election, having flapped to get a little patronage, not to attempt to formulate a new policy for the party, but modestly stay in the rear and advocate the old established principles of the party as proclaimed by its leaders for years.

The best line of guns in the city, Winchester and Marlin rifles, the Dickerman breech-loading rifle and shot gun combined, the Hammerless Smith & Wesson revolver at D. M. Clark & Co's.

Mere Buncombe.

Because we made mention of the fact that it is evident to all that Judge Sleeper would secure the support of all the republicans in this county with the exception of a few soreheads, and also a great many fair-minded democrats who don't allow their party feeling to get the best of their judgment, the Journal man frantically yells that we are attempting to reduce the judgment question to the level of partisan politics. We are trying to do nothing of the kind. In the article to which the Journal takes exception we showed good and sufficient reasons why all republicans not personally hostile to Judge Sleeper should and would vote for him, and why the democrats would also. Democrats certainly are under no party obligation to vote for Mr. Holland, and we do not believe that any fair-minded democrat in Crow Wing county feels under obligation to support him from party affiliation. When Holland got up his "boodle" convention at Aitkin, he virtually ignored the moral support of his democratic friends, and hence has no claim on the party as such. So when the Journal man suggests that Mr. Holland is likely to get anywhere near a majority in this county, he knows that it is said for buncombe and that only. Judge Sleeper has carried no partisan feeling on to the bench, has proved himself to be an able and fair-minded courteous judge, and has satisfied the expectations of his friends, and irrespective of party will receive strong support from his democratic neighbors and the Journal man cannot prevent it. Mr. Holland claims that he will get 600 majority in Aitkin county. How will he secure this when there are only about 300 voters all told in that county? Does he propose to inaugurate a system of fraudulent voting and tamper with the returns? Perhaps he will, but more than likely other parties will be sufficiently interested to shut off this threatened "big majority" in that county. We fail to see where Mr. Holland's majorities are coming from. On the contrary we do know that with public opinion so decidedly favorable to Judge Sleeper, the people will see to it that he will be elected by several hundred majority, Stivers to the contrary notwithstanding.

Will Drop The Electric Light Matter Entirely.

In conversation with a Dispatch reporter yesterday, when asked what the Electric Light Co. would do in case further time was not granted by the council to put in the additional lights, Mr. Kindred said that the matter would be dropped by the company entirely, and the plant disposed of. The time allowed by the contract to put in the additional lights expired the 17th inst., and the council deferred action on the matter until next regular meeting. He said the lights would all have been in position had not the dynamo and apparatus been shipped wrong. The apparatus for both are and incandescent lights are here now, but will be returned unless the council extends the time. He said he did not care whether they did or not, as he was thoroughly tired of the wrangling that has been going on, and he had determined to quit the town and have done with the whole matter. He insisted that the city had the best of the bargain, as the lights were being furnished much cheaper than they can be had anywhere else, and said that this or any other company could not use steam power to operate the plant and meet expenses at the present price, which was agreed to by the company because they expected to get free power at the dam.

When asked what, if anything, was being done to utilize the power at the dam, Mr. Kindred said that he was negotiating with eastern parties to sell to them his entire right and interest, but that there was no certainty that the sale would be effected. But he would continue, while residing in Philadelphia, where he informs us he will locate, to try and induce manufacturers to locate here and utilize the power, and thought that he would be more successful in his efforts where he could see and talk to the parties personally, than by sending out circulars from here.

He also said that the rumor that he had accepted a position on the Philadelphia & Reading and was going to reside in Philadelphia was true, and said that he would leave for that city the first of October and assume the duties of his position.

Council Proceedings.

The council met in regular session Monday evening, all the members being present. After the usual preliminary business had been transacted the council allowed the following bills:

Poster & Annis, oil	$14 05
Brainerd Ice Co., ice	1 30
Sewerage pay roll, laborers	33 00
Geo. S. Lewis, policeman	23 00
Brainerd Tribune, proceedings	12 00
D. M. Clark & Co., hardware	15 85
D. M. Clark & Co., hardware	37 68
Parker & Topping, castings	13 25
J. D. Barstow, police and dog	50 00
Geo. Keough, hauling sawdust	36 00
J. J. Howe, hauling sawdust	70 00
M. McLaren, grading	10 00
S. H. Relf, surveying	10 00

It was moved and carried that no more bills be allowed unless order of purchasing committee be attached.

On motion P. G. Fogelstrom, C. L. Spaulding and W. S. Martin were appointed commissioners to appraise the benefits of sewers to property affected by sewer connections, and levy a tax against the property.

Moved and carried to put Laurel street on grade from Second to Fifth street, and that the street commissioner be authorized to grade Laurel street, between Second and Fifth streets, in accordance with the profile to be made and certified to by the city surveyor and approved by the city council as ordered by the charter, and the city surveyor was instructed to make and certify the proper profile.

Moved and carried that the amount of money ordered paid to Hose Co. No. 4, be divided equally between the four other companies.

A petition of the Electric Light Co. asking for an extension of time in which to place the 50 lights under contract was read, and on motion of Ald. Graham, seconded by Ald. Atkinson, action on the petition was deferred until the next regular meeting. Council then adjourned.

False in Every Respect.
The St. Cloud base ball club went to Brainerd on Saturday and played a mixture of Minneapolis and Brainerd base ballists a game there the following day. The home team were beaten by a score of 11 to 9 by the aid of the umpire and a crowd of several hundred tongs, who even went so far in aid of their home team as to repeatedly throw the ball in front of the first baseman when the ball was thrown to him. The members of the St. Cloud team say that they never before received as unfair and as ungentlemanly treatment.—St. Cloud Journal-Press.

The above is utterly false in every respect, and we hardly believe that any member of the St. Cloud club inspired the above article. In the first place, every member of the Brainerd club is a resident of this city, five of them being employed at the shops, and the balance hold positions in the business portion of the city. And again, not a hat was thrown before the first baseman, nor was he annoyed in any other way, and as to the decisions of the umpire, if there was any cause for complaint, it certainly was not the St. Cloud club, for they had a man by the name of Dunc Tonsely from their own town umpiring for them. A little more regard for the truth on the part of the Journal-Press man, would place him in a better light before the people.

A Week's Engagement.
The management of Sleeper opera house have been fortunate enough to secure for a week's engagement, commencing Monday evening, Sept. 24th, the popular Hunt & Keene Theater Co. This company has appeared, and has elicited a great deal of merited praise. The following very complimentary notice appeared in the St. Cloud Times of the 12th inst.:

A small audience, compared to the opening night, was present last evening at the opera house to witness the second appearance of the Hunt & Keene Theater Co. The play given was one of thrilling interest throughout, and the company produced it in the finished and excellent manner for which they are noted. Miss Gage really excelled herself in the character of "Louise," the heroine of the play. She is a painstaking and conscientious artist, and excels in those powerful emotional scenes upon which so much depends in the proper conception of such a play as "Linwood."

Mr. Keene and Mr. Hunt again sustained difficult and exacting roles, both differing from the characters assumed the previous evening, but both given with artistic and striking fidelity. Mr. Barry N. Fuller acted the part of "Col. Blanchard," the federal officer, with much grace and spirit, carrying the audience with him to the end. Mr. Kent Thomas as "Judge Carlisle," was excellent. Miss Emma Sidal, Miss Florence Hunt and Mrs. Keene played their respective roles with great spirit and feeling. Mr. J. Williams as "Pat," the sentinel, brought down the house with his Irish witticisms. The costuming of the play was rich and appropriate, the many costly and handsome dresses of Miss Gage especially attract attention. Miss Gage is a very beautiful woman, and her taste in dressing for the various characters is correct and charming to a degree.

To-night will be given, for the first time in this city, the celebrated comedy entitled "Queenie," and if the company receive what their merits deserve they will have a full house. The company is probably one of the strongest that has visited St. Cloud for some time, and lovers of the drama should not fail to witness first class plays by a first class company. The troupe will remain during the week and present a new bill every evening.

Prices of admission, 25, 35 and 50 cents. Reserve seats now on sale at Webb's News Stand.

The putting on a short time ago of the first expresses between Edinburgh and London has revived memories of the old inhabitants as to English railroading forty years ago, and one of these alleges that he can remember when the train for Edinburgh was started by a bugle playing "I'd be a Buttery." The passenger-car was as much like stage coaches as possible; the baggage was carried piled on top, and the guards sat like drivers on top also.

A German company of actors that recently appeared at Brussels produced a sensation with a bear, which pursued a terrified man across the stage and up and down the mountain passes, the man appearing to the spectators to be in imminent danger of falling into the deadly embrace of the animal. A bear lacking the necessary dramatic intelligence, and being a costly expense, the management has substituted a dog clad, tail, legs and body, in bearskin, with a well-executed bear mask. The dog has taken to the part with a good will, and terrifies the spectators.

A gentleman named Lord, from Alabama, some days ago, had a fly suddenly enter his ear, from which it was promptly extricated. The insect then as suddenly disappeared. That night Mr. Lord experienced a sensation of itching in his ear. This grew in intensity and pain until it was unbearable. He went to Athens for relief, but remedies applied failed to afford it. Going to Woodville he stated his case to a doctor. The acute pain had by this time nearly brown the gentleman into convulsions. The doctor after applying an anesthetic to his ear, inserted a conical douch, which brought out no less than 11 well-developed maggots, wriggling with robust life.

The following comes from St. John, New Brunswick: A huge bull strayed on the Grand Southern Railway (Russell Sage's road) and seeing an engine with a picnic train approaching concluded he would try what kind of metal Russell's locomotive was made of. With lowered head and tail switching from side to side he charged upon the iron horse. There was a bellow, a cloud of dust and a hissing of steam for a minute or two, and then all was still. When the smoke of the conflict cleared away it was found the locomotive had been thrown off the track and was lying in a ditch. Alongside the engine was the body of the brave bull, his horns locked in the bars of the cowcatcher. None of the excursionists were injured.

The story has been published in several leading papers—emanating from Indianapolis and Evansville—that Gen. Hovey, the hero of the battle of Gettysburg, had been arrested by the federal authorities for an alleged violation of postal laws. It is stated that the general was arrested for the purpose of having franked newspapers through the mails.

LEVI P. MORTON.

It is understood in political circles that W. H. Manor, deputy sheriff, will be the democratic candidate for county attorney and Leon E. Lunn the republican.

COL. C. H. GRAVES, of Duluth, has received the republican nomination for the legislature in the 46th district. Mr. Graves is a strong man and will make a good representative.

BRO. STIVERS is hot in the collar because we published the facts concerning the joint debate and excitedly yells "you lie!" "It's false!" For pity sake, keep cool Bro. Stivers. We did not know that you would feel so badly, or we would not have said anything about your defeat.

CAPT. S. P. SNIDER was nominated on Thursday as the republican candidate for congress from the 4th district. Mr. Snider's opponent is Hon. Edmund Rice, the present congressman from that district, and probably the most popular candidate in the state, but nevertheless, we believe Mr. Snider will beat his opponent. He is an active, enterprising young business man who makes it a point to succeed in whatever he undertakes.

In another column we publish an arraignment of the mayor by the grand jury which we hardly think is merited. While Mayor Hempstead has hardly met the expectation of those who elected him to the position, his administration has been a great improvement over the preceding one, and he deserves some credit for the improvement. Therefore we consider the resolution in a great measure unjust and undeserved.

J. L. BERKHEIMER, the editor of the Voice of the People, a labor paper published at St. Paul, has announced himself as a candidate for the legislature from the 8th and 9th wards in St. Paul. Mr. Berkheimer is the young man who tried to organize a workmen's political club here, but made a rank failure of it. We've got an idea he would be just about as successful as a legislator as he is in the capacity of a political organizer.

On Thursday of last week C. A. Pillsbury & Co., of Minneapolis, divided profits to the amount of $40,000 among their employees. This is the largest amount of money that was ever distributed by any firm in a single year. Each employee who had been with the firm for two years and had worked faithfully, received his proportion according to the value of his services to the company. The sum received by individuals varied from $25 to $2,500.

The Wadena Tribune is constantly referring to the election of Judge Baxter, an appointee of the governor and a democrat, to the position to which he was appointed as Judge of the 7th district. This, as the Tribune says, was right and proper, as Judge Baxter made a fair and impartial Judge, and was called by the bar of his district, the men best qualified to judge of his fitness for the position, to be a candidate for election. So, in a like manner, Judge C. B. Sleeper was appointed by the governor, proved himself a fair and impartial official, has been unanimously called by the bar of his district to be a candidate for election, and we can see no valid reason why the Tribune considers as good policy in Judge Baxter's case, should not be equally so in Judge Sleeper's case. In fact there is no reason except that Judge Baxter was a democrat and Judge Sleeper was a republican, and the Tribune knows that the only conclusion to be arrived at from this style of argument is that Judge Sleeper's election would be eminently right and proper.

Was His Class-Mate.

William R. Merriam, who has been nominated by the republicans for governor of Minnesota, is an old Wisconsin boy, having obtained his education at Racine college. C. E. Andrews, president of the Merchants' association, who was Merriam's classmate at Racine, said of him yesterday:

"The people of Minnesota will have a very smart man as governor. He was always very bright, and his successes of recent years have only been continuations of those of his college days. He entered Racine college at 15 and graduated at 21. Why, to show his success there, in his two years in the grammar school and six in college, the record of all his studies right through averaged 97 out of a possible 100. Merriam and I were class-mates and room-mates and very intimate. He led in all his studies, was a leader in all athletic sports and took all the honors. He was a leader by nature, and he showed it in college as well as in later years. He was historian, valedictorian and the favorite pupil of Dr. DeKoven. He was an indefatigable worker, with tremendous will power and very kind-hearted."

After he left college he went into the First National bank of St. Paul as clerk, and worked right up. He was assistant cashier, cashier, vice-president and president of the Merchant's National bank when it was formed. I guess he is the youngest bank president on record, being only 38 years of age. He has been twice president of the Agricultural association, and president of the National Trotting association. He was speaker of the assembly last year. He has a great many friends in Milwaukee, having visited here quite often."

A Southerner's Opinion of What Free Trade Would Do.

In a letter to the Charleston News

says:

"We made two great mistakes. Had we avoided them we should have conquered you. The first was, we did not substantially destroy the protective feature of the tariff in the winter session of 1857-58, by an act which provided a rapid sliding scale to free trade. We could have passed such a law and held it tight on you till it closed the furnace, workshops, woolen and cotton mills and steel and bar-iron works of the whole north and west, and scattered your workmen over your prairies and territories. When the war was ready for you, you would not have been ready for the war. You would not have armed and equipped and put in the field a large army nor built a large navy. You would have been without supplies, machinery and workmen, and you would have been without money and credit."

Notwithstanding the fact that they understand that free trade, or "tariff for revenue only" would, in the language of Gen. Taylor, "close the furnace, workshops, woolen and cotton mills," etc., the southern wing of the democracy is again seeking to destroy the protective system, and are coining northern democrats to adopt the same view and assist them. The president's free trade message and the Mills bill are the result of the free trade sentiment of the south that is seeking to destroy the industries of the north. But it won't work. The people of the north will, with the ballot in November, defeat the effort of the southern democracy in this direction as effectually as they did in the war, and every northern state will rally to the assistance of the republicans to accomplish this result.

The Democratic party is uncompromisingly in favor of protection. [BRAINERD JOURNAL.]

The above is the rankest display of egotism and gall ever on record. We should like to know how long the Journal man has been the Democratic party, or by what right he places that party in favor of protection, when the last party platform distinctly says that the tariff should be limited to the wants of the government, and the party platform in 1876 says "We are in favor of a tariff for revenue only," which is practically free trade as practiced in England and as everywhere understood to mean free trade. But let us see what position the small balance of the party outside of the Journal man takes upon this subject. The mugwump papers of New York, the Herald, the Times, the Evening Journal, Puck and Harper's Weekly, all admit that Cleveland as a civil service reformer is a failure, but support him because he has declared against the pernicious system of protection. At a Cleveland and Thurman meeting held in New York only a few days ago, when Henry George and Lloyd Garrison announced their intention of supporting Mr. Cleveland, the motto "Free Trade" was suspended over the platform, and the speakers and the audience all declared in favor of the American system of protection, (outside of the great Journal man we mean of course) Henry Waterson, boldly says that the democratic policy is for ultimate free trade. And who is Frank Hurd, the king of free traders in this country, supporting? Cleveland and Thurman of course; certainly not the candidates of a party that is "uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of protection," as the Republican platform boldly proclaims; and again, does not every English paper favor Mr. Cleveland's election because, as they truthfully say, Mr. Cleveland's policy is a first step to free trade. What, let us ask, has been the policy of the democratic party in the past on this question? In 1840 Harrison was elected by the Whigs over a Democratic free trade opponent, the tariff being the issue. The southern Confederacy, which constitutes over one-half of the Democratic party, made free trade an article in its constitution, and the balance of those seceded constitutes three-fourths of the Democratic party—153 electoral votes, are equally in favor of free trade, and the ruin of the industries of the north. We might fill columns showing that the Democratic party is opposed to protection, but we have said sufficient to convince any fair-minded man who has any doubt on the subject, and will only add that Senator Coke, of Texas, said in the senate last week ago that the protective system was pernicious in its effects. This, then is how the Democratic party favors protection, and the Journal's effort to induce laboring men in this locality to vote for the Democratic candidates by falsely stating the position of the party, will be of no avail. And in conclusion, we will add that we think it would be more becoming in the Journal man, considering that he has been a member of the Democratic party only since the last election, having flouted to get a little patronage, not to attempt to formulate a new policy for the party, but modestly stay in the rear and advocate the old established principles of the party as proclaimed by its leaders for years.

Mere Buncombe.

Because we made mention of the fact that is evident to all that Judge

Sleeper would secure the support of all the republicans in this county

with the exception of a few soreheads,

and also a great many fair-minded democrats who don't allow their party feeling to get the best of their judgment, the Journal man frantically yells that we are attempting to reduce the judgment question to the level of partisan politics. We are trying to do nothing of the kind. In the article to which the Journal takes exception we showed good and sufficient reasons why all republicans not personally hostile to Judge Sleeper

should and would vote for him, and why the democrats would also. Democrats certainly are under no party obligation to vote for Mr. Holland,

and we do not believe that any fair-

minded democrat in Crow Wing

county feels under obligation to support him from party affiliation. When

Holland got up his "boodle" convention at Aitkin, he virtually ignored

the moral support of his democratic

friends, and hence has no claim on

the party as such. So when the Journal man suggests that Mr. Holland is likely to get anywhere near a majority in this county, he knows that it is said for buncombe and that only.

Judge Sleeper has carried no partisan feeling on to the bench, has proved himself to be an able and fair-minded courteous judge, and has satisfied the expectations of his friends,

and irrespective of party will receive

strong support from his democratic

neighbors and the Journal man cannot prevent it. Mr. Holland claims that he will get 600 majority in Ait-kin county. How will he secure this

when there are only about 300 voters

all told in that county? Does he propose to inaugurate a system of fraudulent voting and tamper with the returns? Perhaps he will, but more than likely other parties will be sufficiently interested to shut off this

threatened "big majority" in that county. We feel to see where Mr.

Holland's majorities are coming from. On the contrary we do know that with public opinion so decidedly

favorable to Judge Sleeper, the people will see to it that he will be elected by several hundred majority,

Stivers to the contrary notwithstanding.

Will Drop The Electric Light Matter

Entirely.

In conversation with a DISPATCH reporter yesterday, when asked what the Electric Light Co. would do in case further time was not granted by the council to put in the additional lights, Mr. Kindred said that the matter would be dropped by the company entirely, and the plant disposed of. The time allowed by the contract to put in the additional lights expired the 17th inst., and the council deferred action on the matter until next regular meeting. He said the lights would all have been in position had not the dynamo and apparatus been shipped wrong. The apparatus for both are and incandescent lights are here now, but will be returned unless the council extends the time. He said he did not care whether they did or not, as he was thoroughly tired of the wrangling that has been going on, and he had determined to quit the town and have done with the whole matter. He insisted that the city had the best of the bargain, as the lights were being furnished much cheaper than they can be had any where else, and said that this or any other company could not use steam power to operate the plant and meet expenses at the present price, which was agreed to by the company because they expected to get free power at the dam.

When asked what, if anything, was being done to utilize the power at the dam, Mr. Kindred said that he was negotiating with eastern parties to sell to them his entire right and interest, but that there was no certainty that the sale would be effected. But he would continue, while residing in Philadelphia, where he informs us he will locate, to try and induce manufacturers to locate here and utilize the power, and thought that he would be more successful in his efforts here he could see and talk to the parties personally, than by sending out circulars from here.

He also said that the rumor that he had accepted a position on the Philadelphia & Reading and was going to reside in Philadelphia was true, and said that he would leave for that city the first of October and assume the duties of his position.

Judicial Committee Appointed.

As chairman of the republican judicial convention held in 1888, I have appointed the following named gentlemen to act as republican judicial committee for the 15th district during the ensuing six years: G. S. Fernald, Crow Wing county; B. F. Hartshorn, Wadena county; T. J. Nary, Cass county; F. A. Vanderpool, Hubbard county; W. R. Tucker, Cass county.

Council Proceedings.

The council met in regular session Monday evening, all the members being present. After the usual preliminary business had been transacted the council allowed the following bills:

Foster & Annis, oil..... $14 05
BRAINERD Ice Co., ice..... 50 00
Sewerage pay roll, laborers..... 36 00
Geo. S. Lewis, policeman..... 22 00
BRAINERD Tribune, proceedings 19 26
D. M. Clark & Co., hardware..... 15 85
D. M. Clark & Co., hardware..... 37 68
Parker & Topping, castings for sewers..... 13 25
J. D. Barstow, police and dog

killer..... 50 00
Geo. Keough, hauling sawdust..... 36 00
J. J. Howe, hauling sawdust..... 70 00
McLaren, grading..... 10 00
S. H. Relf, surveying..... 10 00

It was moved and carried that no more bills be allowed unless order of purchasing committee be attached.

On motion P. G. Fogelstrom, C. L. Spaulding and W. S. Martin were appointed commissioners to appraise the benefits of sewers to property affected by sewer connections, and levy a tax against the property.

Moved and carried to put Laurel street on grade from Second to Fifth street, and that the street commissioner be authorized to grade Laurel street, between Second and Fifth streets, in accordance with the profile to be made and certified to by the city surveyor and approved by the city council as ordered by the charter, and the city surveyor was instructed to make and certify the proper profile.

A petition of the Electric Light Co. asking for an extension of time in which to place the 50 lights under contract was read, and on motion of Ald. Graham, seconded by Ald. Atkinson, action on the petition was deferred until the next regular meeting. Council then adjourned.

False in Every Respect.

The St. Cloud base ball club went to Brainerd on Saturday and played a mixture of Minneapolis and Brainerd base ballists a game there the following day. The home team were beaten by a score of 11 to 9 by the aid of the umpire and a crowd of several hundred toughs, who even went so far in aid of their home team as to repeatedly throw hats in front of the first baseman when the ball was thrown to him. The members of the St. Cloud team say that they never before received as unfair and as ungentlemanly treatment.—St. Cloud Journal-Press.

The above is utterly false in every respect, and we hardly believe that any member of the St. Cloud club inspired the above article. In the first place, every member of the Brainerd club is a resident of this city, five of them being employed at the shops, and the balance hold positions in the business portion of the city. And again, not a hat was thrown before the first baseman, nor was he annoyed in any other way, and as to the decisions of the umpire, if there was any cause for complaint, it certainly was not the St. Cloud club, for they had a man by the name of Dunc Tonsely from their own town umpiring for them. A little more regard for the truth on the part of the Journal-Press man, would place him in a better light before the people.

A Week's Engagement.

A small audience, compared to the opening night, was present last evening at the opera house to witness the second appearance of the Hunt & Keene Theater Co. The play givenout of one of thrilling interest throughout, and the company produced it in the finished and excellent manner for which they are noted. Miss Gage really excelled herself in the character of "Lucille," the heroine of the play. She was painstaking and conscientious, and excels in these powerful emotional scenes upon which so much depends in the proper conception of such a play as "Linwood."

Mr. Keene and Mr. Hunt again sustained difficult and exacting roles, both differing from the characters assumed the previous evening, but both given with artistic and striking fidelity. Mr. Barry N. Fuller acted the part of "Col. Lamont," the federal officer, with much grace and spirit, carrying the audience with him to the end. Mr. Kent Thomas as "Judge Carlisle," was excellent. Miss Emma Sidall, Miss Florence Hunt and Mrs. Keene played their respective roles with great spirit and feeling. Mr. J. Williams as "Pat," the sentinel, brought down the house with his comic wit and song. The concluding play was rich and appropriate, the many costly and handsome dresses of Miss Gage especially attracted attention. Miss Gage is a very beautiful woman, and her taste in dressing for the various characters is correct and charming to a degree.

To-night will be given, for the first time in this city, the celebrated comedy entitled "Queenie," and if the company receive what their merits deserve they will have a full house. The company is probably one of the strongest that has visited St. Cloud for some time, and lovers of the drama should not fail to witness first class plays by a first class company. The troupe will remain during the week and present a new bill every evening.

FOR PRESIDENT

LEVI P. MORTON.

It is understood in political circles that W. H. Manton, deputy sheriff, will be the democratic candidate for county attorney and Leon E. Lum the republican.

COL. C. H. GRAVES, of Duluth, has received the republican nomination for the legislature in the 46th district.
Mr. Graves is a strong man and will make a good representative.

BRO. STIVERS is hot in the collar because we published the facts concerning the joint debate and excited yells "you lie!" "It's false!" For pity sake, keep cool Bro. Stivers. We did not know that you would feel so badly, or we would not have said anything about your defeat.

CAPT. S. P. SNIDER was nominated on Thursday as the republican candidate for congress from the 4th district. Mr. Snider's opponent is Hon.
Edmund Rice, the present congressman from that district, and probably the most popular candidate in the state, but nevertheless, we believe Mr. Snider will beat his opponent.
He is an active, enterprising young business man who makes it a point to succeed in whatever he undertakes.

In another column we publish an arrangement of the mayor by the grand jury which we hardly think is merited. While Mayor Hempstead has hardly met the expectation of those who elected him to the position, his administration has been a great improvement over the preceding one, and he deserves some credit for the improvement. Therefore we consider the resolution in a great measure unjust and undeserved.

J. L. BERKIMER, the editor of the Voice of the People, a labor paper published at St. Paul, has announced himself as a candidate for the legislature from the 8th and 9th wards in St. Paul. Mr. Berkimer is the young man who tried to organize a workingman's political club here, but made a rank failure of it. We've got an idea he would be just about as successful as a legislator as he was in the capacity of a political organizer.

On Thursday of last week C. A.
Pillsbury & Co., of Minneapolis, divided profits to the amount of $40, 000 among their employees. This is the largest amount of money that was ever distributed by any firm in a single year. Each employee who had been with the firm for two years and had worked faithfully, received his proportion according to the value of his services to the company. The sum received by individuals varied from $25 to $2,500.

The Wadena Tribune is constantly referring to the election of Judge Baxter, an appointee of the governor and a democrat, to the position to which he was appointed as Judge of the 7th district. This, as the Tribune says, was right and proper, as Judge Baxter made a fair and impartial Judge, and was called by the bar of his district, the men best qualified to judge of his fitness for the position, to be a candidate for election. So, in a like manner, Judge C. B.
Sleeper, proved himself a fair and impartial official, has been almost unanimously called by the bar of his district to be a candidate for election, and we can see no valid reason why what the Tribune considers as good policy in Judge Baxter's case, should not be equally so in Judge Sleeper's case. In fact there is no reason except that Judge Baxter was a democrat and Judge Sleeper is a republican, and the Tribune knows that the only conclusion to be arrived at from this style of argument is that Judge Sleeper's election would be eminently right and proper.

Was His Class-Mate.

William R. Merriam, who has been nominated by the republicans for governor of Minnesota, is an old Wisconsin boy, having obtained his education at Racine college. C. E.
Andrews, president of the Merchants' association, who was Merriam's classmate at Racine, said of him yesterday:

"The people of Minnesota will have a very smart man as governor. He was always very bright, and his successes of recent years have only been confirmations of those of his college days. He entered Racine college at 15 and graduated at 21. Why, to show his success there, in his two years in the grammar school and six in college, the record of all his studies right through averaged 97 out of a possible 100. Merriam and I were class-mates and room-mates and very intimate. He led in all his studies, was a leader in all athletic sports and took all the honors. He was a leader by nature, and he showed it in college as well as in later years. He was historian, valedictorian and the favorite pupil of Dr. DeKoven. He was an indefatigable worker, with tremendous will power and very kind-hearted."

After he left college he went into the First National bank of St. Paul as clerk, and worked right up. He was assistant cashier, cashier, vice-president and president of the National bank when it was formed.
I guess he is the youngest bank president on record, being only 38 years of age. He has been twice president of the Agricultural association, and president of the National Trotting association. He was speaker of the assembly last year. He has a great many friends in Milwaukee, having visited here quite often."

Milwaukee Sentinel.

A Southerner's Opinion of What Free Trade Would Do.

In a letter to the Charleston News
says:

"We made two great mistakes.
Had we avoided them we should have conquered you. The first was, we did not substantially destroy the protective feature of the tariff in the winter session of 1857-58, by an act which provided a rapid sliding scale to free trade. We did have passed such a law and held it tight on you till it closed the furnace, workshops, woolen and cotton mills and steel and bar-iron works of the whole north and west, and scattered your workmen over your prairies and territories.
When the war was ready for you, you would not have been ready for the war. You would not have armed and equipped and put in the field a large army nor built a large navy. You would have been without supplies, machinery and workmen, and you would have been without money and credit."

Notwithstanding the fact that they understand that free trade, or "tariff for revenue only" would, in the language of Gen. Taylor, "close the furnace, workshops, woolen and cotton mills," etc., the southern wing of the democracy is again seeking to destroy the protective system, and are coining northern democrats to adopt the same view and assist them.
The president's free trade message and the Mills bill are the result of the free trade sentiment of the south that is seeking to destroy the industries of the north. But it won't work.
The people of the north will, with the ballot in November, defeat the effort of the southern democracy in this direction as effectually as they did in the war, and every northern state will rally to the assistance of the republicans to accomplish this result.

Opposed to Protection.

The Democratic party is unconpromisingly in favor of protection.
—[BRAINERD JOURNAL.]

The above is the rankest display of egotism and gall ever on record. We should like to know how long the Journal man has been the Democratic party, or by what right he places that party as in favor of protection, when the last party platform distinctly says that the tariff should be limited to the wants of the government, and the party platform in 1876 says "We are in favor of a tariff for revenue only," which is practically free trade as practiced in England and as everywhere understood to mean free trade. But let us see what position the small balance of the party outside of the Journal man takes upon this subject. The magnum opus of New York, the Herald, the Times, the Evening Journal, Puck and Harper's Weekly, all admit that Cleveland as a civil service reformer is a failure, but support him because he has declared against the pernicious system of protection. At a Cleveland and Thurman meeting held in New York only a few days ago, when Henry George and Lloyd Garrison announced their intention of supporting Mr. Cleveland, the motto "Free Trade" was suspended over the platform, and the speakers said they supported Mr. Cleveland solely because he had adopted a policy that led to free trade. Again the most representative democrat in the country, (outside of the great Journal man we mean of course) Henry Waterson, boldly says that the democratic policy is for ultimate free trade. And who is Frank Hurd, the king of free traders in this country, supporting?
Cleveland and Thurman of course; certainly not the candidates of a party that is "uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of protection," as the Republican platform boldly proclaims; and again, does not every English paper favor Mr.
Cleveland's election because, as they truthfully say, Mr. Cleveland's policy is a first step to free trade. What, let us ask, has been the policy of the Democratic party in the past on this question? In 1840 Harrison was elected by the Whigs over a Democratic free trade opponent, the tariff being the issue. The southern Confederacy, which constitutes over one-half of the Democratic party, made free trade an article in its constitution, and the balance of the slave states, added to those that seceded constitutes three-fourths of the Democratic party—153 electoral votes—are equally in favor of free trade, and the ruin of the industries of the north. We might fill columns showing that the Democratic party is opposed to protection, but we have said sufficient to convince any fair-minded man who has any doubt on the subject, and will only add that Senator Coke, of Texas, said in the senate less than a week ago that the protective system was pernicious in its effects. This, then is how the Democratic party favors protection, and the Journal's effort to induce laboring men in this locality to vote for the Democratic candidates by falsely stating the position of the party, will be of no avail. And in conclusion, we will add, that we think it would be more becoming in the Journal man, considering that he has been a member of the Democratic party only since the last election, having flouted to get a little patronage, to stop attempt to formulate a new policy for the party, but modestly stay in the rear and advocate the old established principles of the party as proclaimed by its leaders for years.

Entirely.

In conversation with a DISPATCH editor yesterday, when asked what
the Electric Light Co. would do in case further time was not granted by the council to put in the additional lights, Mr. Kindred said that the matter would be dropped by the company entirely, and the plant disposed of.
The time allowed by the contract to put in the additional lights expired
the 17th inst., and the council deferred action on the matter until next regular meeting. He said the lights would all have been in position had not the dynamo and apparatus been shipped wrong. The apparatus for both are and incandescent lights are here now, but will be returned unless the council extends the time. He said he did not care whether they did
or not, as he was thoroughly tired of the wrangling that has been going on, and he had determined to quit
the town and have done with the whole matter. He insisted that the city had the best of the bargain, as the lights were being furnished much cheaper than they can be had anywhere else, and said that this or any other company could not use steam power to operate the plant and meet expenses at the present price, which
was agreed to by the company because they expected to get free power at the dam.

When asked what, if anything, was being done to utilize the power at the dam, Mr. Kindred said that he was negotiating with eastern parties to sell to them his entire right and interest, but that there was no certainty that the sale would be effected.
But he would continue, while residing in Philadelphia, where he informs us he will locate, to try and induce manufacturers to locate here and utilize the power, and thought that he would be more successful in his efforts where he could see and talk to the parties personally, than by sending out circulars from here.

He also said that the rumor that he had accepted a position on the Philadelphia & Reading and was going to reside in Philadelphia was true, and said that he would leave for that city the first of October and assume the duties of his position.

More Buncombe.

Because we made mention of the fact that it is evident to all that Judge Sleeper would secure the support of
with the exception of a few soreheads,
democrats who don't allow their party feeling to get the best of their judgment, the Journal man frantically
yells that we are attempting to reduce the judgeship question to the level of partisan politics. We are
the article to which the Journal takes exception we showed good and sufficient reasons why all republicans not
should and would vote for him, and why the democrats would also. Democrats certainly are under no party
obligation to vote for Mr. Holland,
and we do not believe that any fair-
Holland got up his "boodle" conven-
the party as such. So when the
it is said for buncombe and that only.
Judge Sleeper has carried no partisan feeling on to the bench, has proved himself to be an able and fair-
isfied the expectations of his friends,
kin county. How will he secure this
all told in that county? Does he propose to inaugurate a system of fraudulent voting and tamper with the returns? Perhaps he will, but more
than likely other parties will be suf-
county. We fail to see where Mr.
favorable to Judge Sleeper, the peo-
elected by several hundred majority, Slivers to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Electric Light Matter

both are and incandescent lights are
they expected to get free power at the
dam.

The Electric Light Matter
Entirely.

editor yesterday, when asked what
lights, Mr. Kindred said that the mat-
entirely, and the plant disposed of.
both are and incandescent lights are

A Week's Engagement.
The management of Sleeper opera house have been fortunate enough to secure for a week's engagement, commencing Monday evening, Sept.
24th, the popular Hunt & Keene Theater Co. This company has been a great favorite wherever it has appeared, and has elicited a great deal of merited praise. The following very complimentary notice appeared in the St. Cloud Times of the 12th inst:

"A small audience, compared to the opening night, was present last evening at the opera house to witness the second appearance of the Hunt & Keene Theater Co. The play given was "The Girl of the Year," and the company produced it in the finished and excellent manner for which they are noted. Miss Gage really excelled herself in the character of "Lucille," the daughter of the hero. She is a remarkable and conscientious artist, and excels in those powerful emotional scenes upon which so much depends in the proper conception of such a play as "Lucille."

"The Girl of the Year" again sustained difficult and exciting roles, both differing from the characters assumed the previous evening, but both given with artistic and striking fidelity. Mr. Barry M. Fuller acted the part of "Col. Blanchard," the federal officer, with much grace and spirit, carrying the audience with him to the end. Mr. Kent Thomas as "Judge Carlisle," was excellent. Miss Ellen Siddals, Miss Florence Hunt and Mrs.
Keene played their respective roles with great spirit and feeling. Mr. J.
Williams as "Pat," the sentinel, brought down the house with his Irish wit. The costume of the play was rich and appropriate, and the many costly and handsome dresses of Miss Gage especially attracted attention. Miss Gage is a very beautiful woman, and her taste in dressing for the various characters is correct and charming to a degree.

To-night will be given, for the first time in this city, the celebrated comedy entitled "Queenie," and if the company receive what their merits deserve they will have a full house.
The company is probably one of the strongest that has visited St. Cloud for some time, and lovers of the drama should not fail to witness first class plays by a first class company. The troupe will remain during the week and present a new bill every evening.

Prices of admission, 25, 35 and 50 cents. Reserve seats now on sale at Webb's News Stand.Remember that Veon will make special prices on jewelry and silverware for a short time in order to make room for new stock of goods.

Council Proceedings.

The council met in regular session Monday evening, all the members being present. After the usual preliminary business had been transacted the council allowed the following bills:

Brainerd Ice Co., ice, 1 30
Sewerage pay roll, laborers, 33 00
Geo. S. Lewis, policeman, 22 00
Brainerd Tribune, proceedings, 19 26
D. M. Clark & Co., hardware, 15 85
D. M. Clark & Co., hardware, 37 68
Parker & Topping, eastings for sewers, 13 25
J. D. Banister, police and dog
killer, 50 00
Geo. Keough, hauling sawdust, 36 00
J. J. Howe, hauling sawdust, 70 00
M. McLaren, grading, 10 00
S. H. Relf, surveying, 10 00

It was moved and carried that no more bills be allowed unless order of purchasing committee be attached.
On motion P. G. Fogelstrom, C. L.
Spaulding and W. S. Martin were appointed commissioners to appraise the benefits of sewers to property affected by sewer connections, and levy a tax against the property.

Moved and carried to put Laurel street on grade from Second to Fifth street, and that the street commissioner be authorized to grade Laurel street, between Second and Fifth streets, in accordance with the profile to be made and certified to by the city surveyor and approved by the city council as ordered by the charter, and the city surveyor was instructed to make and certify the proper profile.

Moved and carried that the amount of money ordered paid to Hose Co.
No. 4, be divided equally between the four other companies.

A petition of the Electric Light Co. asking for an extension of time in which to place the 50 lights under contract was read, and on motion of Ald. Graham, seconded by Ald. Atkinson, action on the petition was deferred until the next regular meeting. Council then adjourned.

False in Every Respect.

The St. Cloud baseball club went to Brainerd on Saturday and played a mixture of Minneapolis and Bran-der ball. A game there the following day. The home team were beaten by a score of 11 to 9 by the aid of the umpire and a crowd of several hundred toughs, who even went so far in aid of their home team as to repeatedly throw hats in front of the first baseman when the ball was thrown to him. The members of the St. Cloud team say that they never before received as much and as ungenerous treatment. —St. Cloud Journal-Press.

The above is utterly false in every respect, and we hardly believe that any member of the St. Cloud club inspired the above article. In the first place, every member of the Brainerd club is a resident of this city, five of them being employed at the shops, and the balance hold positions in the business portion of the city. And again, not a hat was thrown before the first baseman, nor was he annoyed in any other way, and as to the decisions of the umpire, if there was any cause for complaint, it certainly was not the St. Cloud club, for they had a man by the name of Dunc Tousley from their own town umpiring for them. A little more regard for the truth on the part of the Journal-Press man, would place him in a better light before the people.

Mr. Gardner intends to rush the work in order to have the building entirely completed this fall. It will be solid brick, 25x30 feet, two stories high, with basement under the entire building. The first floor will be used as a store room by Mr. Gardner himself, who will put in a fine stock of groceries as soon as ready. The second story will be a public hall, intended for the use of secret societies, etc. As this hall will be 25x30 feet, about as large as Odd Fellow's hall, it can readily be seen that it will be a very desirable place for the use of such organizations.

At the meeting of the board of education last Friday night a committee was appointed to hire quarters for an additional room in East Brainerd, and also to engage a teacher. We learn that the committee have rented a room diagonally across the street from the Methodist church, and have engaged Miss Small as teacher. A committee was also appointed to secure quarters in the Second ward for an additional room, and an attempt was made by the committee to rent the old building on Episcopal church square, but they were unable to do so, and as no other suitable place can be secured, the superintendent, in order to accommodate all the scholars desiring of attending, has arranged to have one-half of the primary room closed in the morning, and the other half in the afternoon. This arrangement causes a loss of one-half in time of attendance and is greatly to be regretted, but it is the best that could be done under the circumstances.

N. P. Refrigerator buildings, will be open every evening from 7:30 to 9 p. m.
